St. James's, April 17.

THE following Addreſs from the Colony of Connecticut, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Bolingbroke, One of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Governor and Company of Your Majeſty's Colony of Connecticut, in New England.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, having, in Obedience to Your Command, Proclaim'd the Peace Your Majeſty has made with France, humbly beg leave, on ſo joyful an Occaſion, to approach Your Sacred Preſence with our moſt dutiful Acknowledgments of Your Majeſty's great Wiſdom and Goodneſs, which have ſo bright an Appearance in the happy Fruits of this great Bleſſing to Your People.

In the midſt of Your Triumphs over the utmoſt Force and Power of Your Enemies, Your Majeſty has prefer'd the Eaſe and Tranquility of Your Subjects to thoſe increaſing Glories of Your Arms.

While we adore the Favour of Heaven, which has inſpired Your Majeſty's Councils in this great Affair, and crown'd them with a Succeſs ſo Deſirable and Glorious; We come with a profound Devotion to render at Your Feet, our Tribute of Gratitude and Obedience for the tender Regard Your Majeſty has therein ſhewn, to the moſt valuable Intereſts and Proſperity of Your People.

This muſt remain a Teſtimony to all the World, of the Satisfaction Your Majeſty has in the Weal of Your People.

And there is now no greater Bleſſing for us to wiſh to our ſelves, than that Your Majeſty may long enjoy the Comfort of ſo Divine a Pleaſure, increas'd by the fervent Zeal of Your happy People, to expreſs, with the greateſt Conſtancy, a moſt entire Acquieſcence in Your Majeſty's conſummate Prudence, and a moſt chearful Obedience to Your Government, as the only way to perpetuate ſo great an Happineſs.

For this we make our inceſſant Vows to Heaven, and are, with a moſt devout and reſolved Fidelity, Madam, Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and moſt obedient Subjects.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Venice, April 13. N. S. Count Provana, late Envoy of the King of Sicily to the Court of Vienna, arrived here ſome Days ago, and this Morning he ſet out for Turin. The Magiſtrate of Health has again reduc'd the Quarentine from Forty to Twenty eight Days for all Perſons, excepting thoſe who come from Monteba. Signor Tron, who is appointed to go Ambaſſador from this Republick to Her Majeſty, has taken his Leave of the Senate, and intends to ſet out very ſoon for Great Britain. They write from Rome, that Cardinal Carpegna, who had been Forty Years Vicar of the Popes, died there on the 6th Inſtant. On the 7th the Marquis de Prie had his Audience of Leave, and was preparing to return home. A Decree of the Inquiſition had been poſted up in the publick Places of the City, condemning the Paſtoral Letter of Cardinal Noailles, as Schiſmatical, and injurious to the See of Rome. Letters from Naples bring an account, that Count d'Atalaya, Vice-Roy of Sardinia, was embark'd for that Kingdom on board the St. Leopold Man of War. We have receiv'd advice, that Signor Memo, Bailo of this Republick, was arrived at Conſtantinople, where he was received with the Honours due to his Character.

Hamburgh, April 24. N. S. The King of Denmark has aſſur'd the Emperor's Secretary at Copenhagen, that, in regard to his Imperial Majeſty, he will raiſe the Blockade of this City in a few Days. The Squadron of Norway, that has been expected for ſome time at Helſingohr, is at length arrived there, and is order'd to proceed to Petersbourg and Riga, in order to take on board the Troops that are in a readineſs to embark at thoſe Places. Monſieur Goertz has repeated his Inſtances with the Court of Berlin to make ſome Attempt in favour of his Maſter, and to engage in Meaſures for putting a ſtop to the growing Power of the Czar. The Daniſh Miniſter at the ſame Court has already had his Audience of Leave, but he has put off his departure from thence, upon ſome Suſpicions the King his Maſter has lately entertain'd of the King of Pruſſia's Proceedings. Count Flemming is return'd to Dreſden. During the time of his continuance at Berlin, he was often in Conference with the Pruſſian Miniſters, as well in relation to the Evacuation of Elbing, as upon the Subject of ſome Propoſals that are to be made to the Aſſembly at Brunſwick. It is thought King Auguſtus will appoint other Plenipotentiaries to the Congreſs in the room of thoſe he had already named, with whoſe Behaviour the Czar and the King of Denmark have ſeem'd very much diſpleas'd. The Swediſh Miniſters in the ſeveral Courts of Germany have received Orders to complain of the Houſe of Gottorp, for intermedling in the Affairs of Sweden, without the Knowledge or Conſent of the Regency. The Senate of that Kingdom hath likewiſe ſent a Memorial to his Majeſty in Turky, accuſing the Miniſters of Holſtein of having concerted the Sequeſtration of Stetin with the King of Pruſſia of their own accord; as alſo that they had not obſerved the Engagements they had made with Count Steinbock, who by the means of their neglect was obliged to ſurrender himſelf and his whole Army Priſoners of War. The Miniſters of Holſtein being inform'd of this Accuſation, have drawn up another Memorial in Defence of their Conduct, and have ſent it in like manner to the King of Sweden at Demotica.

Hanover, April 24. N. S. Yeſterday Mr. Harley arrived here, and to Morrow he is to have an Audience of his Electoral Highneſs.

Hague,
